United States District Court Judge
Eastern District of North Carolina
Raleigh, North Carolina

Dear Judge Boyle:

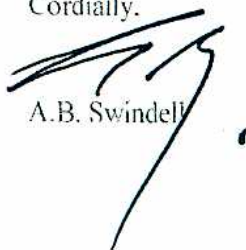

I shall never forget the time you and I spent together duck hunting in Hyde County. I miss Daddy so much – he such a friend to so many. I trust your family is doing well – please tell Tom I said hello and that Mother is doing well at the Methodist retirement home in Greenville.

Judge, I am writing you today regarding a dear friend of mine who cares so much about others and his state. Boyce Hudson, who will appear before you soon for sentencing, has been a friend for over twenty-five years. My father was a good judge of people, as you know. I look at Boyce as one who has always been true and faithful to me. Boyce's wife Mo is my clerk at the legislature, and we make a wonderful team for the citizens of Wilson and Nash County

You have a difficult job, and I know as I follow your career that you are always mindful of all the facts and circumstances. I want you to know that Boyce has always been faithful to his family and friends. He is one of the most dedicated public servants I have ever known. He has been a friend to the environment for all of his adult life. He cares deeply about his state and loves its land and people.

Thank you for any consideration as you proceed in this difficult process. My best to you always.

Cordially,

A.B. Swindell
